

Application Procedures of 2019 Shanghai Summer School (BRICS Program)

Shanghai Summer School (BRICS Program) is a short-term educational program that provides an opportunity for the undergraduates, postgraduates and junior researchers from BRICS countries to live and study in Shanghai, China for one month (from July 6 to August 2). Students would take two main courses, which are: "Global Governance and Cooperation among BRICS" and "China's Politics and Diplomacy". The total number of enrollment of the Program is 50, 20 of which enjoy scholarship and 30 are self-financing (non-scholarship).

An applicant for either scholarship or non-scholarship must send his/her materials of application to the Center for BRICS Studies of Fudan University (E-mail: bricssummer@126.com) as he/she starts to apply. The deadline for handing in application materials is May 3. The list of application materials is shown below:

1. Curriculum Vitae (CV);
2. A transcript of the program he/she is enrolled in; a junior researcher could send us his/her certificates of honor;
3. A statement of purpose;
4. A completed application form (a blank form and a demonstration are attached in this letter);
5. At least one letter of recommendation given by a professor or an associate professor.
(Scholarship applicants are required to send this. However, it is optional for non-scholarship applicants.)

The admission name list for the scholarship students will be published on May 10, and the admission name list for the self-financing students will be published on May 16, through official websites of the Center for BRICS Studies and BRICS Information Sharing and Exchanging Platform (<http://www.brics-info.org>) and our Facebook (FUDAN BRICS PROGRAM). You may find detailed information about the Program in the introductory brochure of 2019 Shanghai Summer School BRICS Program.

Shanghai Summer School (BRICS Program),
Center for BRICS Studies, Fudan University, China